The Great meme Reset

Was it successful?

Dr Bustin Jeber

we gather here today to ask the question was the great meme reset of 2026 successful to answer this question we have doctor Bustin Jeber today

“in hindsight it all depends on what the public wants On one side you have all the brainrot kids who are spamming SIXSEVEN OHIO MANGO MUSTARD SKIBIDI and on the other side we have all of the OG’S who belive that its time to revive all of the old memes like uganda knuckles and big chungus and harambe . So far i thing the OG’S are right Just yestarday i saw that there was a massive “meme protest in witch they made a massive 6-7 float and SET IT ON FIRE”

“What I think is that all of the OG’S are right the brain rot kids may have a bigger army but there takeover is starting to go out of control more & more children are joining the OG’S and in my opinion all of the brainrot memes are crumbling away its only a mater of time before the brain rot disappears. As they say all is calm after the storm.”

Update on the cat dog cross Breed (it got turned into cat dog cross beef)

After the escape of the cross breed it seemed imposible to capture but on the 4th of January three men went out in there snowgear and attempted to track the beast down they eventually found it burowed in the snow the men didi'nt hesitate to pump it full of Anesthesia before it could wake up the next day the group ordered a helicopter to take the beast back to the city the creature was the brung to Macintosh labs where it was inspected for diseases after it was given the 'all clear'' by the lab workers the hunters organized a feast .on the 6th of january 3,000 people and a couple of celebritys ended up going out for the feast estimates showed that over 25,000 kilograms of meat was consumed however aparently that STILL WASINT ENOUGH so the hunters partnered with a food company to distribute the remaning pieces of meat
