It was the morning of monday the 23 when pigeon mans airship glided over dachs but it then slowly released a stream of bombs deastroing several buildings trees & a street however the ship didnt stop & relised another stream of bombs a few minuits later, however just then a masive blimp acompanied by a plane ( airship ) & two fighter jets appeared, the plane & fighter jets then swooped down to follow pigeon mans airship the fighter jets then began shooting sniper bullets at the plane the sniper bullets reigned down upon the airship & sattelight footage shows the bullets jamming the right engine. The airship then began a slow decent & it seems that pigeon man ( in his airship ) planned to use the ejector seat but just as he was about to eject himself a missile ( from the enemy plane ) struck the back of the plane ignighting the helium tanks & blasting the entire ship into a raging fireball. The burning fireball of a ship then crashed into a gasoline complex completly blowing up the ship & the factory a corner declared pigeon man burnt to death by gasoline & karosine, the island was auctioned off for $ 1,500,000, the rest of his pigeon bombs & planes where stripped for the valuble medals & scrapped, all of his mind controlled pigeons where set free & his independent provence was declared nonexistent. The gouverment then declared that "The ark of pigeon man was incredibly unfortunate but wee will do our best to enshure that sutch an event will never happen again".

What the people say

Dis Pigeon man here sounds like a joke back in my grandpaws day we had to deal with real threaths like the Cult!!! & Anarchist organizations

Mr Von Bruin

Whell i dont see what all the fuss is all about i think he was a joke just some guy with a couple of bombs & stuff in my opinion we sould me mutch more worried about the communists and dont even get me started on the south

Ravenous 1 Deastroies

the city

After many ravenous towering beasts have escaped from major corporation's its no surprise that the government has put in place, laws forbiding corporations to create massive beasts of distruction, however even though laws are in place to prevent sutch incedents its no suprise that people still create these beasts.

Just yesterday a ravenous “one beast” was dancing around town chanting threats such as “join the one cult” or “save yourselves before the twos invade”. after around two hours of nonstop rambling the SWAT teams arrived & opened fire upon the massive one after about one minuit & 37 seconds it fell to the ground but not before eating several of the swat teams tanks & trucks. it was brought to macintosh labs for studuiing a further update will be given in two weeks.

Who was the attacker?

A recreation of their logo

Today in Dachs-but a lot of people are celebrating the fall of pigeon man but the question remains “who was the organisation that commanded the attack”

Research shows that the most likely candidate was the very mysterious C.D.F.G. this organisation is one of the many organisations working in the shadows trying to take down the government they are the ones who send blimps into Dachs-but every year, they are the ones trying to take down the government & they were the ones who bombed the Dachs-but Dam last year

It is very possible that they were looking for someone to spread chaos so they picked this crazy pigeon loving person ( pigeon man ) to do it. they lent him $ 1,000,000 & told him that he had to give it back by four weeks however , it seems that pigeon man did not give back all of the money in fact many experts think he did not think that he gave any money at all. After the dead line of last week it seems that C.D.F.G had enough so they sent a team of airships to pigeon man to take him down ... & it worked
